FIVE GRAINS OF SUGAR (HINDI/ENGLISH) 5.30 pm:

The play recounts the personal journey of Rajkumar - a young man from small town India, where nothing spectacular ever happens. The play revolves around the choices he makes, especially when pushed into a corner. Rajkumar goes through his everyday life with idyllic charm and is surrounded by characters who are as irrepressible; A failed poet who insists on refining his taste, a mother with a strong taste for bloody and gory films, an old Gandhian who is still reliving his single meeting with Gandhiji, a stunning hero from school and an invisible friend. Rajkumar's is a universal journey filled with delightful events and speckled with life-changing experiences.

Directed by: Soumyajit Majumdar.

Based on original text by Manav Kaul.

Cast: Abhijit Bhattacharya, Ronit Deb and Disha Hemant Ved.

Live Band: Abhinava Chatterjee, Yudhajit Biswas, Tirthankar Biswas and Kabir Chattopadhyay

KALAKAR KI KAHANI (ENGLISH/HINDI/BENGALI) 6.30pm

A musical adaptation of Rabindranath Tagore's famous poem, Juta Avishkar, this play revolves around the struggle of an artist to pursue his/her dreams.

Kalakar Ki Kahani was the first play performed by LOK four years back and it has completed over 70 shows around the country including Prithvi Theatre, National Centre for Performing Arts and the Indian Habitat Centre.

Directed by: Soumyajit Majumdar.

Cast: Suprovo Tagore, Soumyajit Majumdar, Disha Hemant Ved, Roshni Ali, Kheya Chattopadhyay, Abhijit Bhattacharya, Rupkatha Sarkar, Sangat Halder, Sambit Chatterjee, Abhinava Chatterjee, Aneesh Basu, Yudhajit Biswas and Tirthankar Biswas.
